Dear Veteran,

The County Veterans Services Office, County of Door, and Door-Tran are working together to provide transportation to US Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) clinics in Milwaukee, Appleton, Cleveland, Green Bay, and other medical facilities which started February 2011.

Thursdays are primary service days; therefore trips are planned as follows:

- ✓ 1st Thursday of the month – Cleveland and Milwaukee VA Clinics.
Cleveland appointments must be scheduled between 10 a.m. & 3:30 p.m.
Milwaukee appointments must be scheduled between 11:30 a.m. & 2:30 p.m.
- ✓ All other Thursdays in the month – Green Bay and Appleton VA Clinics.
Appleton appointments must be scheduled between 10:30 a.m. & 2:00 p.m.
Green Bay appointments must be scheduled between 9:30 a.m. & 2:30 p.m.

Please note – when possible appointments should not begin or end after the timeframes listed above. Other days and destinations may be scheduled based on vehicle and volunteer driver availability.

The van will depart from the Aging & Disability Resource Center (ADRC) in Sturgeon Bay at a set time based on rider needs. Please arrive early to ensure you are boarded by departure time. Riders are expected to meet the van at the ADRC and may park in the parking lot. Other pick up locations may be set along the van's route. Consider packing a lunch or snack to have at the VA or Clinic. The van will not be making extra stops and there is no eating or drinking in the county vehicles.

Enclosed for your completion and return are the Rider Information, Consent of Release of Confidential Information, Agreement/Disclaimer, and Rider Policy Information. Please read and complete the forms and return to Door-Tran in the stamped envelope that is also enclosed – these must be received prior to your scheduled trip. You may keep the Rider Policy booklet and sign the Agreement/Disclaimer sheet and return. Please call 920/743-9999 with your questions, concerns, or to schedule a ride.

Thank you,
